DETAILED ACTION

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 9-23-02 has been entered.

2. The amendment filed 10-11-02 is acknowledged. Claims 10 and 14 were amended. Claims 10-17 are pending in this application.

3. All rejections made in the previous office action and not cited herein are hereby withdrawn in view of Applicants amendment.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103© and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 10-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Danielov et al. (US5885974).

Applicants assert that the reference does not teach the required element or the required amount of independent claim 10 or 14. "Specifically, Danielov does not teach or provide any motivation for a kit containing an effect and administrable amount of HGH and at least one supplemental hormone to establish a regiment of replenishment of the hormones within a body to physiological levels."

Applicant's arguments filed 10-11-02 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

The specification states that the HGH is administered less than .5mg per day (see page 14, lines 1-5). The reference teaches the administration of HGH in 1-10 micrograms. This concentration is well within the concentration range for HGH disclosed in the specification. Further, the reference repeatedly states that the kit can be used in parenteral form for the treatment of trauma or shock (see col. 5, lines 15-17). Further, the reference teach that the composition results "in the resumption of normal cell metabolism" and has concentration that are within the claimed range (see claim 4). Thus, the composition, since it is given parenterally and in the claimed concentration range, the physiological concentration would necessarily be achieved. Applicants have not distinguished a kit in any other way, other than concentration. Thus, the reference renders obvious the claimed invention.

Rejection is maintained.

Double Patenting

5. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321© may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

6. Claims 10-17 remain rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 26-34 of U.S. Patent No. 5,855,920. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because of the reasons set forth in the previous office action and the reasons set forth below.

Applicants traverse the rejection and state that a terminal disclaimer disclaim portion of the term of any patent will be considered once the claims are othewise in condition for allowance.

7. Applicant's arguments filed 10-11-02 have been fully considered.

Till a terminal disclaimer disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application has been filed, the rejection will be maintained.

New Ground for Rejections

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

8. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

9. Claims 10-17 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention for the reasons set forth in the previous office action and the reasons set forth below.

Claim 10 and 14 seem to be in complete. Both claim states "replenishment of the human growth hormone and the at least." It seems that after growth hormone and the, something else should be present.
